

Educational and professional program "Geography, Economics, Local Studies and Tourist Work"

The first (Bachelor) level of higher education in specialty 014.07 Secondary Education (Geography)

Qualification: Bachelor of Secondary Education (Geography). Geography teacher.

The purpose of the educational program: to provide theoretical and practical training of highly skilled personnel who would have acquired the basic professional knowledge for the fulfillment of professional tasks and duties of applied nature in the field of modern education (in the subject specialization "Geography"), ability to productive and pedagogical activities in general education and specialized educational institutions

Employment suitability: Professional activity in secondary education. Comprehensive and special educational institutions, extra-curricular educational institutions. It is carried out by the customer on the primary positions of the geography teacher of general education and special educational institution, organizer of extracurricular educational work with children.

Professional competencies:

- ability to apply basic knowledge of natural and social sciences in teaching and professional activity in the study of the Earth, geospheres, continents and oceans, Ukraine, natural and social territorial complexes;
- ability to use geographic information technology to solve educational problems in the field of geography, economics, local lore and tourism work;
- understanding of the basic physico-geographical and socio-geographical processes occurring in the geographical space at different levels of its organization;
- cartographic competence: ability to provide comprehensive geographic assessment of the territory based on the analysis of maps, ability to display geographic objects and processes using cartographic works;
- ability to perform pedagogical research, to interpret the obtained research results, to apply them in professional activity;
- ability to conduct geographic analysis of natural and social objects and processes in different spatio-temporal scales;
- ability to explain the patterns of territorial organization of social production, spatial processes and forms of organization of people's lives in the world, its regions and countries;
- ability to apply the acquired geographic, economic and psychological and pedagogical competencies, knowledge of modern methods and educational technologies for the formation of general and substantive competences for students in geography and economics;

- ability to communicate with communities, to organize communication between pupils, to create equitable, fair educational environment conducive to the learning of all students;

- ability to study psychological peculiarities of the students' learning of educational information for the purpose of diagnosing, forecasting the effectiveness and correcting the educational process in high school;

- ability to implement a regional studies approach in geography lessons, in extra-curricular activities.