

Educational and professional program "Geography, Economics and Local lore and Tourism Work" of the second (master's) level of higher education in specialty 014.07 Secondary Education (Geography)

Qualifications: Master of Secondary Education (Geography). Geography teacher.

The purpose of the educational program: to provide fundamental theoretical and practical training of highly skilled specialists who would have acquired deep profound knowledge for the fulfillment of their professional tasks and duties of scientific research and innovation in the field of modern education (in the subject specialization "Geography"), capable of providing communication skills between geographical science and pedagogical practice, it is easy to adapt to modern technologies and teaching methods.

Suitability for employment: professional activities in the field of secondary education and related areas. General educational and special educational institutions, extra-curricular educational establishments, higher education institutions of the I-II levels of accreditation, research institutes. It's performed by the customer on the primary positions of the teacher of geography, teacher of secondary, higher educational institution, researcher, employee of state authorities and local self-government.

Professional competencies:

- ability to use knowledge of scientific theories and concepts of geographic education in pedagogical activity;
- possession of the basics of research, ability to apply general scientific and special research methods, research skills;
- ability to use theoretical knowledge and practical skills of system analysis, socio-geographic modeling and forecasting of socio-geographical objects and processes;
- ability to use in practice the elements of monitoring of socio-economic development of regions;
- ability to use geographic information technology to solve research problems in the field of economic and social geography;
- ability to apply the acquired geographic, economic and psycho-pedagogical competencies, knowledge of modern methods and educational technologies for the formation of general and substantive competences for students in geography and economics;
- ability to communicate with communities, ability to organize communication between students and teachers, to create an equitable, fair educational environment conducive to the learning of all students;
- ability to study psychological peculiarities of learning by students of educational information for the purpose of diagnosing, forecasting the effectiveness and correction of the educational process in the profile secondary school;
- ability to carry out pedagogical activities and teach the discipline of professional training in general, professional and higher educational institutions of the I-II levels of accreditation.